

Saudi Physical Therapy Association (SPTA) Innovation Competition

JW MARRIOTT HOTEL, RIYADH
From 28 to 30 November 2024

#SPTA20

01.

Entry Conditions

Eligibility

- Open to all physical therapists residing in Saudi Arabia.
- Participants can enter as individuals or teams.
- Proof of residency may be required (e.g., Iqama, Saudi national ID, or other valid residency documentation).

Affiliation

- Participants may be affiliated with any organization within Saudi Arabia (e.g., universities, healthcare institutions, companies) or be independent.
- Membership with SPTA is required for the individual applicant or one member of the team applicant. Register for SPTA membership.

Team Composition

- Individuals or teams of any size.
- For teams, at least one member must be a resident of Saudi Arabia.

Conflict of Interest

- SPTA employees or members directly involved in competition organization are ineligible.
- All other SPTA members or employees may participate if they meet the requirements.

Commitment

- Participants must agree to the competition's terms and conditions.
- Winners must be willing to present their innovations in person if required.

Multiple Entries

- Each individual or team may submit only one innovation idea.
- An individual may contribute to multiple innovation ideas, but only one of these ideas will designate them as the primary innovator.

Verification

- SPTA reserves the right to verify any information of participant and reject entry.

Participant Categories

- Physical therapy professionals.
- Physical therapy interns.
- Physical therapy students .

Entry Process

- Submission: Participants submit their innovation ideas through the designated online platform by the specified deadline (27 Oct 2024).
- Initial Screening: All submissions are reviewed to ensure they meet the basic eligibility criteria and competition rules.
- Categorization: Eligible entries are categorized based on the participant categories for organizational purposes, though all entries will be judged together.

Thank You